Among the great discoveries of modern and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern actions, few are for more rual value to manked that this effectual remody for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast tribal of its virtues, throughout this and cher countries, has almost that if does airrely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that Chemy Perronal, will and does relieve and cure the afficing disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicals. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so runnishide as bardly to be believed, were they not poven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, or which the public may raify for hill protection. By curing Couchs, the fovernments of more serious disease, it as one manusted of auffeiting not to be computed.
